Always ready to support your business: AHK Japan's leadership team

Official Representation

Co-funded by the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi), AHK Japan is the key institution for promoting Germany's overseas business development in Japan. AHK Japan promotes bilateral economic relations with wide-ranging activities, like providing information, identifying trends and "hot topics" as well as building and maintaining networks. We also look after and represent German institutions, associations and trade fairs in Japan.

Service Provider

Operating under the brand "DEinternational", AHK Japan is not only the first point of contact for German companies deciding to enter the Japanese market, but also a professional provider of a wide range of tailored services such as market intelligence, business matching, business trip support as well as consultation services and event management. For start-ups and newcomers to Japan, we provide incubation offices enabling them to easily establish a local presence. As a nonprofit organization, all fees are calculated on a cost-covering basis. Additionally, members of the chamber enjoy special discounts.

Member Organization

On the basis of a voluntary membership, over 450 companies create a unique and exclusive network to promote the exchange of information and expertise. Members can participate in various working groups, regular seminars on business relevant topics like Human Resources, Tax or Law as well as the members only event series Executive Insights. Members also enjoy full access to AHK Japan's online member directory, receive the chamber's magazine JAPANMARKT and benefit from up to 20% discount on DEinternational services.
